54. Local Youth Councils

As Members will be aware, discussions have been taking place regarding the feasibility of creating a joint Youth Council between Lancing Parish and Sompting Parish Councils, with Members requesting further information at the last meeting (Minute 40/Sept/2018 refers). Cllr Eveleigh will provide further information, along with Cllr Baxter from Sompting Parish Council.

Recommendation – Members’ views are requested.

55. Recruitment – Sir Robert Woodard Academy

It can be confirmed that the Clerk contacted Ms Kerry Ramshaw at SRWA as requested (Minute 41/Sept/2018 refers). At the time of sending the agenda, a response had not been received.

Recommendation – That the information be noted.

56. Community Garden and Allotment

The main focus for LPYC in 2018-2019 is the community garden and allotment at the Parish Halls. Members were due to meet informally to establish what plants will work best in the raised bed. Cllr Scott will provide an update at the meeting.

Recommendation – Members' views are requested.

57. Advertising Local Events for Young People

Pursuant to Minute 45/Sept/2018, the Working Group will provide an update in regard to creating a Facebook page to promote local events for young people.

Recommendation – Members' views are requested.

58. Christmas Market Stall

It can be confirmed that LPYC have a stall booked for the Lancing Festival on 15 December 2018, from 9am to 1pm ('Splat the Grinch' game, with sugar-free Christmas sweets as prizes). Members are requested to confirm attendance and arrive at North Road, Lancing at 8:30am. Members are reminded to wrap up warm and bring lunch/snacks.

Recommendation – That the information be noted.

59. Training for Youth Councillors

As agreed at the last meeting (item 44 refers), training sessions in assertiveness and public engagement are being investigated.

Recommendation – That the information be noted.

60. Youth Council Surgery

YCllr Scott has suggested holding a Youth Council Surgery at Lancing Village Market alongside the Parish Council Surgery. If this suggestion is progressed, a rota of Members should be created. Cllrs Eveleigh or Patmore, as YC Representatives (with DBS), will be required to attend every LPYC surgery.

Recommendation – Members' views are requested.

61. Remembrance Sunday Parade – 11 Nov 2018

The Lancing Remembrance Sunday Parade is taking place on Sunday 11 November, starting at Culver Road, Lancing. Members are invited to attend, meeting outside the Royal British Legion on Culver Road at 2:15pm. The parade will start at 2:30pm, down to the War Memorial on South Street, followed by a service in St Michael and All Angels Church. Members are reminded to dress appropriately for the occasion and weather (don't forget your poppy). A wreath has been ordered to be laid by the Chair.

Recommendation – That the information be noted.

62. Future Agenda Items

YCllrs, representatives and Members of the public are invited to submit items for discussion at future Council meetings.

Recommendation – Members' views are requested.
